On January 5, 2018, Pratt was released from the Bureau of Prisons. On December 6, 2019, we accepted supervision of Pratt's case in the Eastern District of New York (EDNY) based on his family ties. Notably, he is scheduled to reach his maximum expiration date from supervised release on January 4, 2024.

On February 5, 2020, as indicated on the attached Transfer of Jurisdiction Form (Prob. 22), the Honorable Mark E. Walker Chief U.S. District Judge for District for the Northern District of Florida initiated transfer of jurisdiction of Pratt's case to the Eastern District of New York, based on Pratt's recent noncompliance and so that we can address future violations in our Court. We respectfully request that this case be assigned to a U.S. District Judge in the Eastern District of New York.

If you require additional information, please contact the undersigned officer at (718) 374-8816.
